Participant Registration & Declaration of Consent

Each participant must sign this form. By signing, each participant or legal guardian confirms that the general participation conditions as well as the applicable regulations have been read, understood and accepted. This applies in particular to the sections on liability and rules of conduct. The undersigned agree that the collected information, photos and videos may be used for documentation, reporting and promotional purposes by the organizer and may be shared with media partners if necessary – without any entitlement to compensation.

The participant agrees that the personal data required for the organization of the event may be collected, processed and stored by the organizer. Each participant confirms that they are physically able to participate in the sports event and that valid health insurance coverage exists. Additionally, the undersigned confirm that they agree to the Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy and Withdrawal Policy. With the signatures below, participation, photo and video consent as well as data processing in accordance with GDPR are confirmed.
